PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Art and design has been a focal point of my life through crafting with my mother as a young child, taking extra-curricular art classes while in school and studying graphic design and interior design in my adult life. I aspire to continuously evolve my craft through the people I meet and the places I go, while staying true to my core values of empathy, generosity, and inclusivity.

EXPERIENCE

LVR-Studios

Interior Designer, December 2025- Present

- Streamlined design processes to meet deadlines and the company's aesthetic standards.
- Sourced one-of-a-kind items through international vendors, discovered through research and networking at trade shows.
- Created full-scope design packages that included FF&E and CAD elevations and floor plans for both clients and contractors to reference.

Junior Designer, January 2024- December 2025

- Delivered visually compelling and accessible presentations that helped clients connect with and feel inspired by the design process.
- Maintained clear communication with vendors and contractors to understand project progress and needs in order to upkeep timelines and high-quality results.
- Built organizational systems to cross-check and track purchasing, deadlines, and tasks at hand to create longterm efficiency and trust between team members.

Design Assistant, February 2023- January 2024

- Designed custom furniture pieces using hand sketching and AutoCAD and coordinated with vendors to ensure each piece was built with precision and details in a timely manner.
- Established vendor connections at trade shows to source materials and skilled trades for upcoming projects.
- Visited worksites weekly and informed clients of progress and any issues being resolved.
